

McGlinchey Stafford's Irvine Presence Grows with Addition of Two Attorneys

McGlinchey News Release

March 5, 2018

McGlinchey Stafford LLP is pleased to announce the addition of two attorneys to the firm's Irvine office. David Malmon joins the firm's Business Transactions and Corporate Law groups as Of Counsel, and Tanya C. McCullah joins the firm's Commercial Litigation group as an Associate.

Malmon is an experienced business and lending attorney with a background in the areas of business law, real estate law, mortgage regulation, and secured lending law. He has been advising business clients and guiding business transactions for more than a decade, and has negotiated and documented numerous transactions of all sizes, including a $500-million warehouse line of credit. Malmon also has extensive in-house experience, with more than a decade of combined experience as in-house counsel and general counsel for mortgage warehouse lending, financial services, real estate, and mortgage loan origination and capital markets companies. He received his J.D. from the University of Chicago in 1994, and his M.A. and B.A., with honors, from the University of Chicago in 1991.

"We are very excited to welcome David to the firm," said Rudy Aguilar, Managing Member of McGlinchey Stafford. "He brings a considerable background in handling business transactions and entity governance to our nationwide team and will serve as an outstanding resource to the many clients we serve in these areas. David's experience as in-house counsel also provides us with an enhanced insight enabling us to focus on our clients' perspectives as we counsel businesses on their issues facing them."

McCullah's practice focuses on representing financial institutions and other consumer financial services providers in commercial litigation and consumer financial services litigation in state and federal courts. She has extensive experience representing mortgage servicers and lenders in a wide variety of litigated matters including actions for fraud, wrongful foreclosure, breach of fiduciary duty, unfair competition, negligence, and breach of contract. Her primary focus is defending mortgage lenders and loan servicers in lender liability actions. McCullah has also consulted on matters of estate planning involving living trusts, powers of attorney, advance care directives, grant deeds, and special needs trusts. She is a 2011 graduate of the Chapman University School of Law and a 2007 graduate of California State University, Fullerton.

"Tanya's experience is an excellent complement to our existing strengths in consumer financial services litigation in California. We are pleased to welcome her to the firm and our growing Irvine office," said Anthony Rollo, who heads McGlinchey Stafford's nationwide Commercial Litigation group.

McGlinchey Stafford's Irvine office, founded in 2013, has grown to 12 attorneys serving the firm's clients across the state in commercial litigation, financial services litigation, construction litigation and counseling, healthcare, and labor and employment matters.

Related Professionals
Tanya C. McCullah

Related Services
Commercial Litigation
Corporate

About McGlinchey Stafford:
McGlinchey Stafford is a full-service law firm providing innovative legal counsel to business clients nationwide. Guiding clients wherever business and law intersect, McGlinchey Stafford's 170 attorneys are based in 15 offices in Alabama, California, Florida, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Mississippi, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, and Washington, DC.

Media Contact:

(225) 382-3681 