

McGlinchey Stafford Participates in Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Annual Meeting

September 23, 2011

McGlinchey Stafford is proud to have been involved in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) since its inception in 2009, and was pleased to be a part of its 2nd Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C., September 14-16, 2011. The firm supports and contributes to the LCLD's mission of developing strategies to increase diversity in the legal profession. Attending the LCLD Annual Meeting from McGlinchey Stafford included the firm's Managing Member Rudy Aguilar and Lauren Campisi. Additionally, this year, Lauren Campisi was selected as a Fellow of the Council and participated in meetings designed specifically for the 2011 Fellows.

The Leadership Council on Legal Diversity joins together the leadership of law firms and corporate legal departments to resolve diversity challenges in the profession. Membership includes hundreds of the nation's largest companies and law firms committed to this effort. For more information, visit www.lclldnet.org.
