

Houston Office Open Following Hurricane Harvey

September 1, 2017

McGlinchey Stafford is fortunate to report that our attorneys and staff are all safe following Hurricane Harvey, and we are helping our neighbors and friends throughout Southeast Texas in the rebuilding process. Our Houston office is open and the building was not damaged. Thanks to our technology and the firm's disaster preparedness plans, we were able to continue serving clients through the duration of the storm without any service interruptions.
