Nashville, known as "Music City," is home to legendary country music venues such as the Grand Ole Opry, Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, and the Ryman Auditorium. In addition to its deep roots and long history as a hub for the recording and entertainment industries, Nashville boasts a strong and diversifying economy in the areas of healthcare, financial services, manufacturing, insurance, and publishing. The Nashville metropolitan area has been one of the fastest-growing in the United States since 2010.

McGlinchey Stafford's Nashville office serves corporate clients in civil litigation pending in all Tennessee state and federal courts. A substantial portion of the office's practice focuses on civil litigation in the areas of commercial litigation, consumer financial services litigation, products liability, and insurance defense.
