

Brian M. LeCompte

MEMBER

Brian LeCompte is an accomplished litigator with more than 15 years of experience in a wide range of aviation, products liability, and maritime cases. Brian currently chairs the firm's Aviation & Aerospace group, comprised of uniquely qualified and diversely experienced attorneys spanning the field of aviation law from personal injury to government contracts.

Prior to becoming a lawyer, Brian served for six years as Crew Chief on F-15 Eagles in the 159th Fighter Wing of the Louisiana National Guard. During that time, he was responsible for all maintenance, safety, and airworthiness of his aircraft. This experience, followed by his years of litigating commercial, military, and general aviation cases, has given Brian industry insight that makes him uniquely qualified to serve clients.

Brian's experience embraces several areas within maritime law, including defending personal injury and wrongful death claims, indemnity claims, property damage claims for ships and barges, fires, collisions, and Jones Act matters. His practice also focuses on automotive products liability, trucking, premises liability, toxic torts, and all manners of general litigation. Among his clients are some of the largest aircraft and automotive manufacturers in the world.
