

Manuel Farach

MEMBER

Manny is board certified by The Florida Bar in the areas of Real Estate Law, Business Litigation, and Appellate Law (one of only 15 members of The Florida Bar who are simultaneously certified in three areas of practice) and focuses his practice in these areas. With more than three decades of both transactional and litigation experience, including as outside general counsel for a savings and loan association, Manny combines legal knowledge with a practical understanding of the business community.

Manny has counseled businesses in numerous industries and of varying sizes, including lenders and government agencies such as the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC), and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC), as well as numerous borrowers in complex transactions. Manny has also provided counsel in corporate mergers and acquisitions; financial and debtor-creditor matters to creditors and lenders (including bankruptcy and complex foreclosure litigation); landlord/tenant disputes; Internet law; and construction and real estate development matters.

Manny serves as an arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association, has significant FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, formerly NASDR) arbitration experience, and is certified as a Florida Supreme Court approved mediator. He also previously served as a Foreclosure Commissioner for the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Manny clerked for Judges James T. Downey and Bobbi Gunther of the Florida Fourth District Court of Appeal following law school and Judge C. McFerrin Smith of the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court of Florida while in law school.

Manny has authored numerous legal publications, including Florida Real Estate Law (the real estate component of Thomson-West's Florida Practice Series), and publishes the Real Property and Business Litigation Report, a highly read weekly compilation of state and nationwide real estate and business cases. The Florida Supreme Court appointed Manny the Chair of its committee on business jury instructions, and he is a regular speaker on topics as diverse as real estate law, business litigation, technology law, and professionalism. Manny also serves as an adjunct Professor of Law at the Florida State University College of Law.

Experience

Clarification of Florida's Lis Pendens Statute

Ober v. Town of Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, 218 So.3d 952 (Fla. 4th DCA 2017).

The firm was successful in overturning a trial court judgment that adversely impacted title to all property in Florida when a foreclosure sale is involved.

Acted as trustee and counsel in representing a purchaser of significant real property in Palm Beach County.

Property stretched from the Atlantic Ocean to the Intracoastal Waterway in a fashion in which the privacy of the purchaser was protected.

Appointed outside General Counsel for a lender under an O.T.S. consent order.

As part of the new management team, turned the lender around and had the consent order removed, and then acted as counsel when the lender sold to another lender in a multimillion-dollar cash and stock transfer transaction.

Handled merger and collapse of multiple operating companies into Delaware holding company with representation across all levels of parent and subsidiary.

Represented airplane leasing company in the sale of its assets and transfer of its licenses to the purchaser.

Represented an out-of-state medical practice contesting long-arm jurisdiction over the proceeds of a defined benefits pension plan and trust.

Represented client in purchasing waterfront parcels and consolidating the parcels into operating businesses

Representation included waterfront permitting and zoning issues.

Represented client in the acquisition and development of hundreds of acres of vacant land for commercial and residential projects

Represented client who was an occupier of a condominium unit under a disputed life estate as remainderman

Successfully terminated the co-tenancy of the condominium, all without litigation.

Represented clients in significant complex foreclosure matters, including commercial foreclosure of notes and mortgages that lack indorsement to present lender.

Represented clients in the resolution of intra-business disputes, including litigation in the following industries: health care, construction, product manufacturing, transportation, and communications.

Represented former trustee against charges of defalcation across two dozen cases, in and outside of bankruptcy court, and totaling $25,000,000.00.

Represented landowners in establishing that abandonment of a non-conforming use requires intent to abandon, and not merely the passage of time.

City of Lake Worth v. Cook, 1 Fla. L. Weekly Supp. 383 (Fla. 15th Cir.), aff'd, 626 So. 2d 1115 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993).

Represented numerous banks in litigation matters, including enforcement of loan obligations, fraudulent conveyances, bankruptcy matters, and EFT disputes.

Represented numerous landlords in landlord-tenant matters, including two of the regional shopping malls in Palm Beach County.

Represented party enforcing payment under a real estate contract and established new law regarding waiver of the right of equity of redemption in settlement agreements.

Rothschild Reserve Intern., Inc. v. Silver, 830 So. 2d 224 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002).

Represented seller of real estate arising out a breach of contract that involved two appeals to the district court of appeal and the Florida Supreme Court, including making new law regarding payment of attorney's fees.

Swift v. Wilcox, 924 So. 2d 885 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006).

Represented seller of real estate regarding the applicability of arbitration provisions in real estate disputes.

Keyes Co. v. Spencer, 16 So. 3d 213 (Fla. 4th DCA 2009).

Represented the beneficial owners under a nominee agreement in regaining their legal rights and placing the clients into full ownership, including through summary judgment and appeal, arising out of a complex, multimillion-dollar real estate development.

Represented the purchaser of real property in Palm Beach County for the construction of very large residential estates.

Representation included issues surrounding the purchase of the properties, assemblage of the parcels into one unified parcel, negotiation of the construction contract, and environmental and lien issues.

Represented the seller of commercial real property in the development restricted Palm Beach County Ag Reserve area.

Successfully defended corporation at jury trial in breach of contract, conversion and business torts claims totaling more than $20,000,000.

Successfully represented a 501 (c) (3) not-for-profit corporation in reversing the revocation of will and trust devise to a different not-for-profit.
