

Shaun K. Ramey

MEMBER

Shaun Ramey represents clients in a broad variety of litigation across the states of Tennessee, Alabama, and Florida. Shaun focuses on helping clients reach efficient and favorable resolution regardless of the type of matter at hand. With nearly 20 years of experience as a litigator, Shaun draws from his varied experience to help businesses and individuals overcome a myriad of challenges. Shaun is a sports and music enthusiast who is a fan of both the Nashville Predators and singer-songwriter-wife India Ramey.

Practice Focus

Shaun has extensive experience representing financial services providers, mortgagees, loan servicers, banks, and real estate entities in consumer financial services litigation. Shaun represents these entities in individual and class actions in suits alleging fraud, breach of contract, and violations of consumer protection statutes. Shaun is a frequent speaker on foreclosure, the CFPB, and other major topics and is often called upon to share his knowledge at national mortgage servicing and banking seminars. Shaun also regularly counsels clients on compliance, default, and general loan and servicing operations.

Shaun has extensive injunction trial experience, with a background in unfair competition, trademark infringement, and business partnership disputes. Shaun has worked with numerous corporations, partners, and shareholders to help his clients reach creative and amicable solutions across a variety of different industries including insurance, shipping, publishing, and music.

Shaun regularly works with product manufacturers, contractors, mobile home manufacturers and financiers, car financiers, termite companies, and other service providers in protecting their interests in lawsuits and arbitrations covering an array of issues including product defects, construction defects, mold exposure, and termite damage.

Representative Experience
