

Lauren E. Campisi

MEMBER

A native of Abbeville, Louisiana, Lauren Campisi joined McGlinchey Stafford in 2005. Lauren is a Member in the firm's New Orleans office and focuses her practice on consumer finance regulatory and compliance matters and litigation.

Lauren provides strategic, business-focused advice to clients who offer a variety of financial services, including national and state-chartered banks, national mortgage lenders and servicers, automotive and personal property finance companies, installment lenders, and online lenders. Lauren has particular experience assisting clients with issues concerning the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), Truth in Lending Act (TILA), Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) and prohibitions against unfair, deceptive and abusive acts and practices (UDAAP). Lauren frequently advises clients on compliance with state lending and licensing laws and state debt collection laws and regulations. Lauren also represents clients in single party and class action litigation and federal and state enforcement actions and supervisory examinations.

Lauren's recent experience includes:

- Assisting clients in the development of new consumer financial products, including product features, negotiating vendor relationships, drafting consumer loan documentation, and advising on applicable legal considerations
- Negotiating loan purchase and servicing agreements for various consumer loan products
- Leading regulatory due diligence on multiple consumer lenders and finance companies related to outside investments and portfolio acquisitions
- Providing strategic federal and state law advice regarding consumer communications campaigns, including telephone calls, text messages, email messages, and chat functions
- Leading due diligence and providing strategic counsel related to the transfer of mortgage servicing rights
- Managing a team of attorneys and paralegals to obtain de novo licenses for mortgage loan originators and branch locations in connection with the acquisition of the home lending division of a bank
- Advising clients in connection with CFPB and state supervisory examinations
- Filing a petition for exemption from the prior express consent requirements of the TCPA for mortgage servicing calls before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC)

Lauren is an active member of the Consumer Financial Services Committee of the American Bar Association and a frequent speaker on issues affecting the consumer financial services industry. In 2018, Chambers USA selected Lauren as a Recognised Practitioner in the field of consumer financial services compliance, one of only thirty-four attorneys to receive a nationwide individual ranking.

 As businesses of all varieties witness increasing spikes in litigation and struggle to comply with many aspects of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA" or "Act"), 47 U.S.C. 227, many hoped relief would come from the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") in response to the dozens of petitions pending before it. These petitions sought clarification of the scope of the statute through key definitions like "automatic telephone dialing systems," "called party," "prior express consent," "making" and "initiating" calls, as well as resolution of significant compliance challenges based on the statute's silence with respect to revocation of consent and the effect of reassigned telephone numbers and requests for specific exemptions.
