

Jeffrey Vaisa

ASSOCIATE

Jeff Vaisa's practice focuses on commercial litigation and consumer financial services litigation in state and federal courts. He represents mortgage servicers and lenders in a wide variety of litigated matters including actions for fraud, wrongful foreclosure, breach of fiduciary duty, unfair competition, negligence, and breach of contract. He represents financial institutions such as national and state banks, consumer finance companies, credit card issuers, credit unions, thrifts, mortgage banks and lenders, mortgage loan servicers and issuers, and other consumer financial services providers in litigation and arbitration, with a primary focus on defending mortgage lenders and loan servicers in lender liability actions.

Jeff regularly defends claims arising under the Truth in Lending Act (TILA), Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act (HOEPA), and Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). He also represents lenders in litigation relating to the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA), Civil Rights Act, and state counterparts to these statutes.

During law school, Jeff clerked for the EPA, FCC, and DOJ in Washington, DC and the Indiana Department of Environmental Management in Indianapolis.
