

Jon Ann H. Giblin

MEMBER

Jon Ann H. Giblin is a member in the firm's Baton Rouge office. She represents clients in consumer and commercial bankruptcy matters, collections and creditor rights issues. Jon Ann continually strives to bring extraordinary professionalism to bear in service to her clients.

Jon Ann is a frequent lecturer on creditor's rights, bankruptcy and the Fair Debt Collections Practices Act (FDCPA), often offering private briefings and training to her clients.

Bankruptcy, Reorganization and Creditors Rights

Jon Ann regularly represents creditors in consumer and commercial bankruptcy proceedings, helping protect and improve clients' collateral and financing positions. With regard to Chapter 7 bankruptcies, she helps creditors improve the security of their position. Her practice encompasses motions to lift stay, objections to confirmation of plans, adversary proceedings, objecting to discharge, valuation hearings and defense of preferential transfer actions.

Collections

Jon Ann has more than 20 years of experience assisting secured creditors in recovering collateral through replevins and executory process foreclosures on both movable and immovable property. Her collections practice also includes general litigation matters involving contracts and the enforcement of creditor rights in numerous situations. She also advises clients on compliance with the Fair Debt Collections Practices Act and the Louisiana Lease of Movables Act. Jon Ann represents landlords in commercial evictions and lease litigation issues and conducts training sessions to prepare clients to take the Nevada Collection Managers' Examination in order to become licensed debt collectors in Nevada.

Litigation

Jon Ann works with other litigators to serve firm clients, often preparing appellate and other briefs. Her work also encompasses a motion practice, litigating legal issues that are technical in nature.
