Because, in the immortal words of State Representative Rickey Hardy from Lafayette, who was quoted recently in the New Orleans Times-Picayune as saying to the State House Judiciary Committee during a hearing on prison recidivism:

"I've always said, if you think education is expensive, try ignorancy."

Your editors here at Focus on Business want you to have all the latest information on what our beloved Louisiana State Legislature has been up to. To that end, we recruited McGlinchey's resident bard, Mike Rubin, to provide his highly selective and tongue-in-cheek notes on the 2009 regular session of the Louisiana Legislature. Enjoy!
