

2nd Circ. Case Highlights CAFA Home State Exception Trend

Related Professionals
Michael D. Ferachi

Law360 Class Action

February 26, 2014

On Sept. 18, 2013, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit affirmed a district court ruling dismissing a putative class action under the Class Action Fairness Act's home state exception, even though the defendant did not raise the exception until three years after the complaint was filed. Click here to read the entire article.